FILM CONTEST: NASA and the Houston Cinema Arts Society will offer filmmakers around the world a chance to share their works inspired by and using actual NASA imagery through "CineSpace," a new short film competition premiering at the Houston Cinema Arts Festival, November 12-19, 2015. Films featuring real NASA footage collected from 50 years of exploring the universe will be judged on the same creativity, innovation and attention to detail that are the hallmarks of spaceflight. Works will compete for cash prizes and other recognition and the opportunity to be shown to audiences both on and off the Earth. Submission period is June 1 thru July 31, 2015. Grand Prize is $10,000. No Entry Fee. For complete information please visit <http://cinespace15.org/>

FILM FESTIVAL: Call for entries. Now accepting films and screenplays for the 17th Annual Gulf Coast Film & Video Festival, September 11th and 12th, 2015. NEW: As part of entering your project and if your project qualifies and is selected for screening, your production company or your project has the opportunity to have an advertisement in the GCFVF Program, which is distributed to each ticket holder at this year's 17th Annual GCFVF's Saturday night "Live" Awards Presentation on Saturday, September 12th, 2015. This is a FREE opportunity for your production company or project to get a little more notice. For further information on submitting entries & prices, and schedules, screenings, tickets, etc., please visit www.gulfcoastfilmfest.com
