Casting Call for Theater LaB Houston's World Premiere
In collaboration with UnCommonWill Collective Partly underwritten by The Warhol Foundation's Idea Fund

Winifred by Alva Hascall

We need one amazing actor, male or female, to fill out two-person cast (title role is already filled). Age 25-35-ish. Capable of breaking hearts and landing a devastating emotional punch. Androgyny required; we are truly open w/r/t gender. Versatility and emotional range are essential, will play multiple roles in a variety of styles, including short movement sequences. The text is fierce and complex, the director smart and collaborative, and the process will work you out. Rehearsals will entail deep-muscle acting work, physical work, and improvisation. Confidence, emotional strength, generosity of spirit, and sense of humor a must. Credible Dietrich impression a plus. If you are interested, please hit the link and sign up. Info below:
